Heath High School

West Paducah, Kentucky

Foreword

"Sometimes,

not often enough

We reflect upon the good things
And those thoughts always center Around those we love.
And I think about those people, Who mean so much to me and
For so many years have made me
So very happy
And I count the times
I have forgotten to say Thank you
And just how much
I love them.

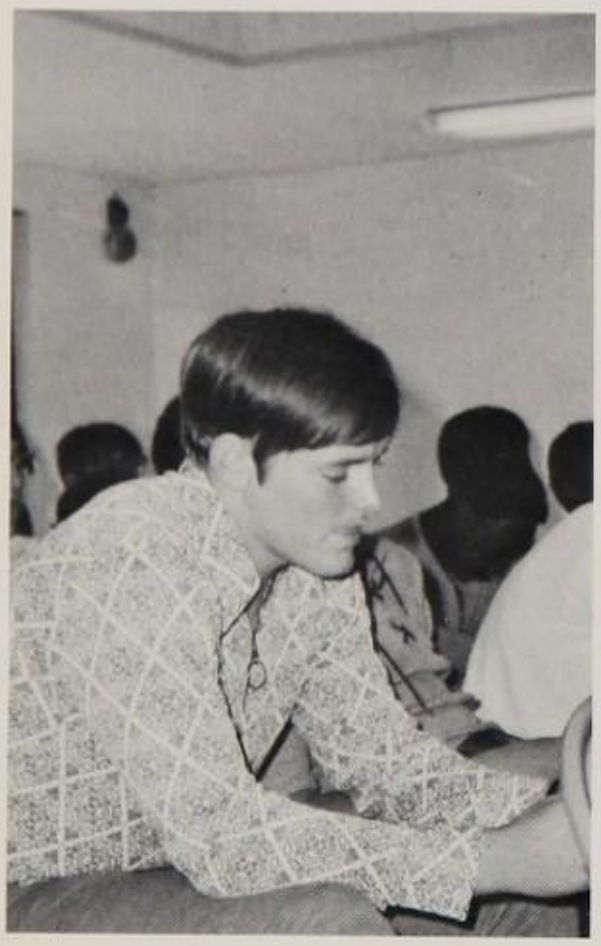
. . . and we begin again



... but today well-lived makes every yesterday a dream of happiness, and every tomorrow a vision of hope

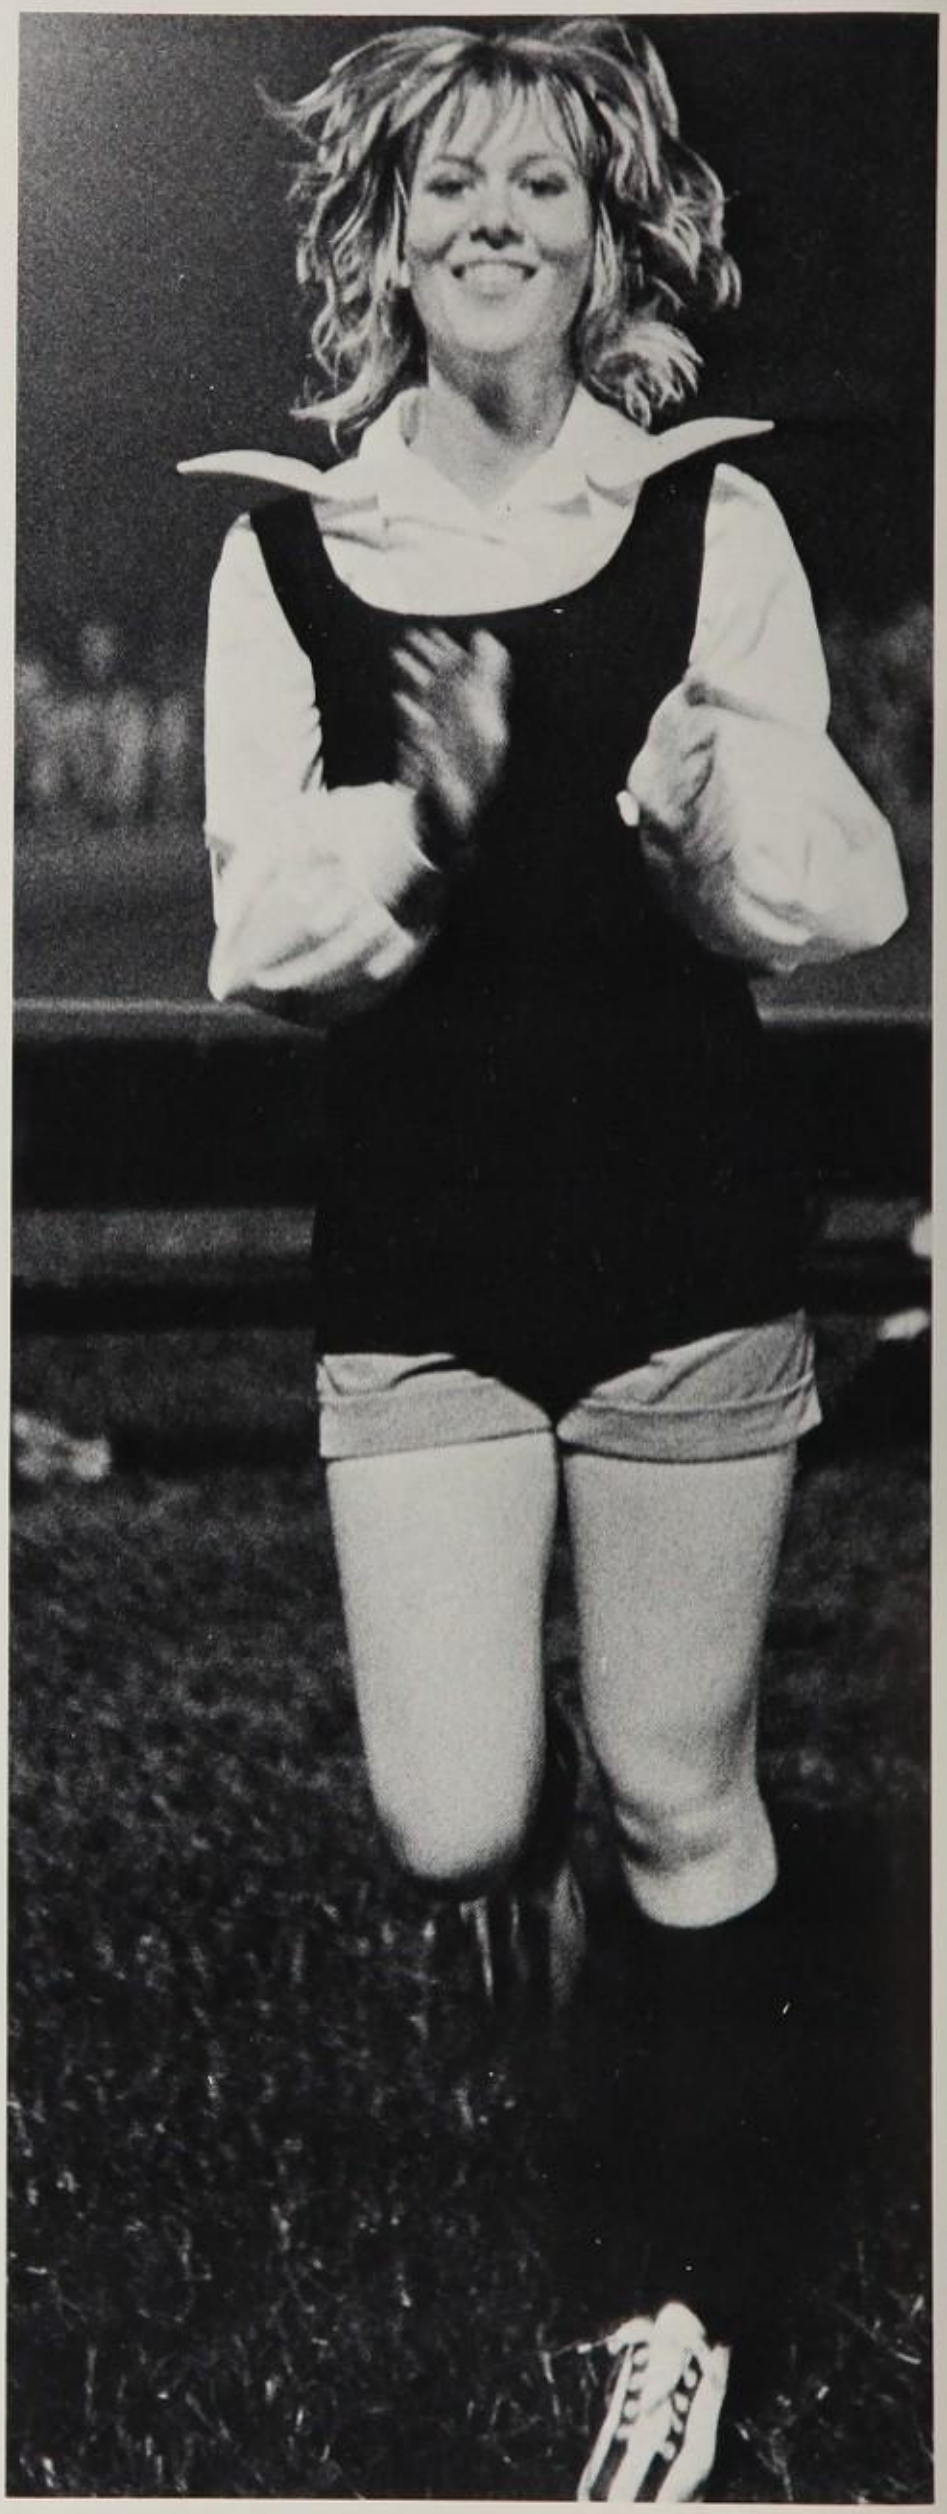
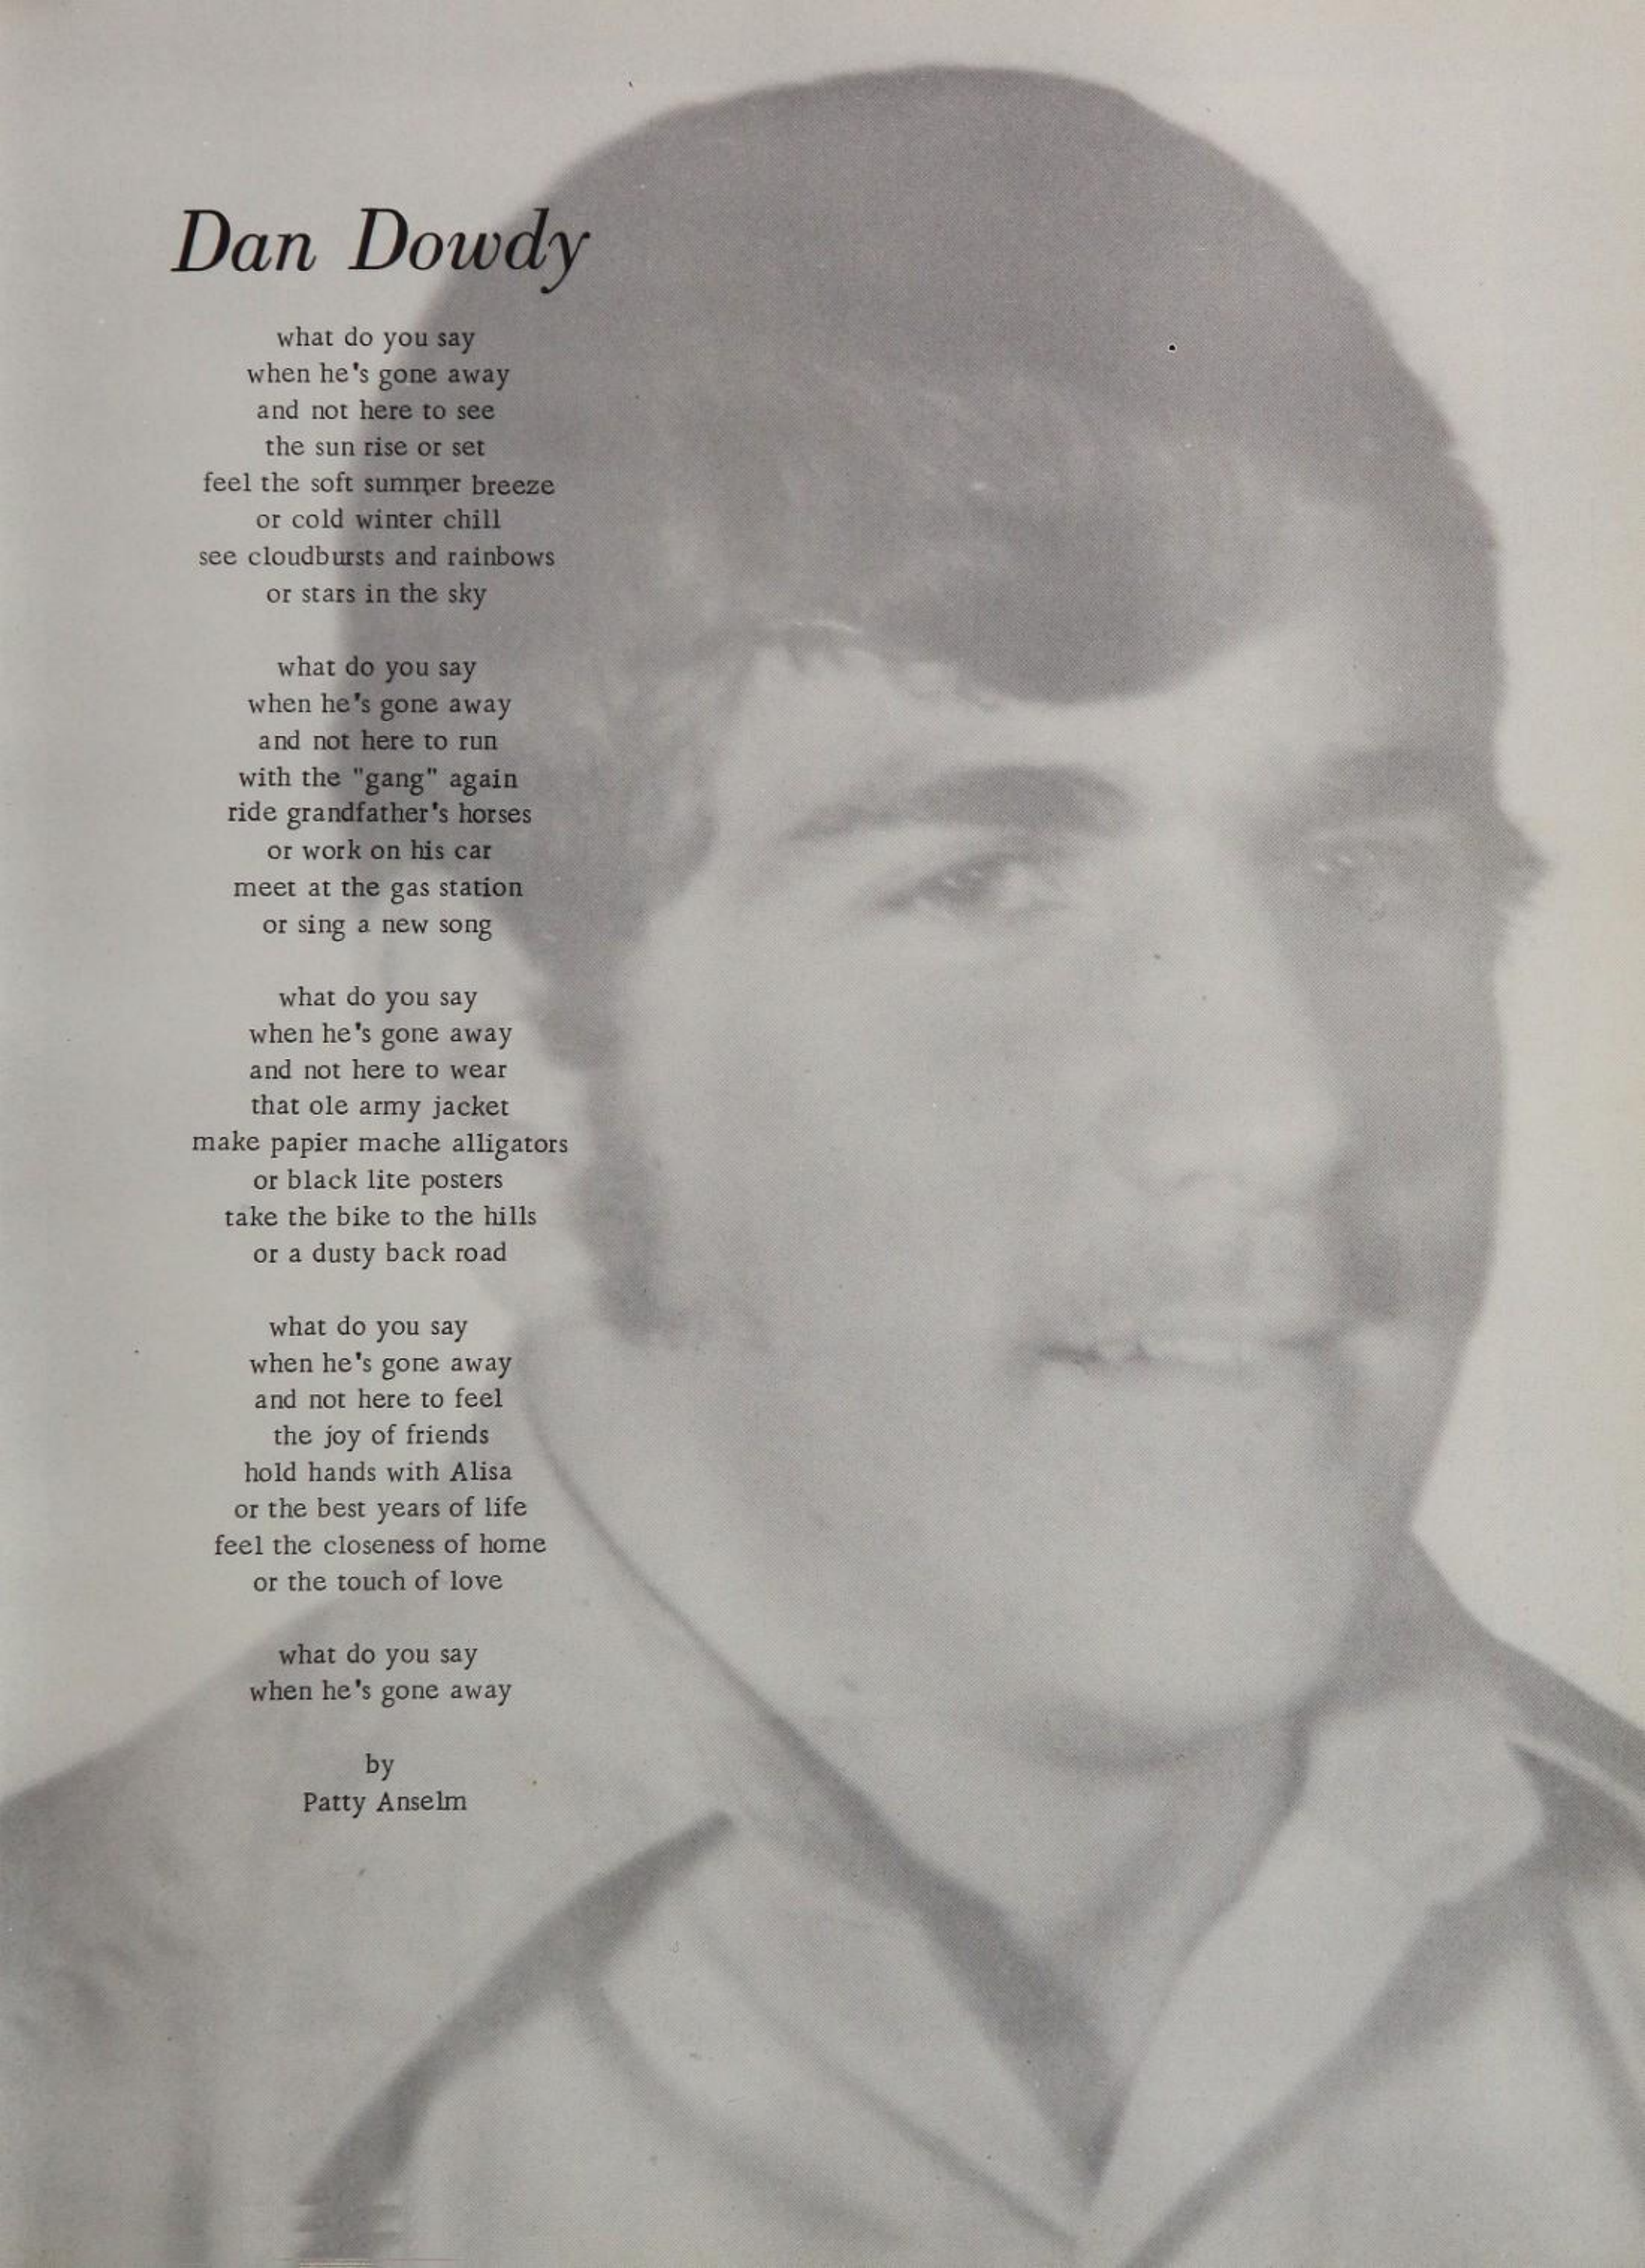
Today we've the time . . .

but tomorrow we've the dream



Dan Dowdy



what do you say
when he's gone away
and not here to see the sun rise or set feel the soft summer breeze or cold winter chill see cloudbursts and rainbows or stars in the sky

what do you say
when he's gone away
and not here to run with the "gang" again ride grandfather's horses or work on his car meet at the gas station or sing a new song

what do you say
when he's gone away
and not here to wear that ole army jacket make papier mache alligators or black lite posters take the bike to the hills or a dusty back road

what do you say
when he's gone away
and not here to feel the joy of friends hold hands with Alisa or the best years of life feel the closeness of home or the touch of love

what do you say
when he's gone away

by
Patty Anselm

Sometimes we can't think of words to express feelings, and within two short years we've learned there are feelings in music to express. Loneliness and happiness, sadness, and joy.

We would like to dedicate this 1973 PIRATA to Miss Vicki Stasko for being the person you are, and for letting us know of this spirit of freedom in feelings. And we would like for you to remember us not as momentary etchings jiggled in too fast.

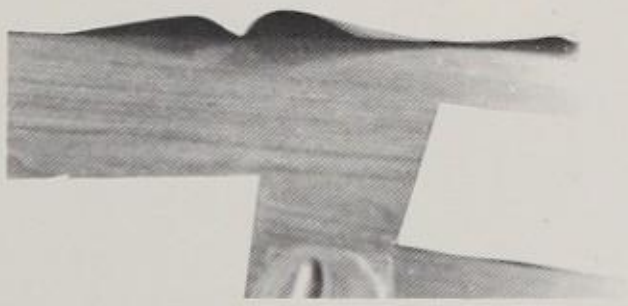
MR. ESTES

Mr. Joseph K. Estes . . .



... A man who converses his time to ours.
Responsibility and concern take a turn about too! He is an on the job man whom we admire deeply. He has backing enthusiasm that lends a hand in the growing spirit.
Thank you Mr. Estes, for now we know to hold on to these years they are going to be the best years of our lives.

Answering questions and questioning our answers, one of the many things that he can accomplish the best. Problems that range from our school life to home life, freshman scheduling to senior credits. Got a problem? See Mr. Jones, he's our man in conference.

Ruth Randolph

If ever you need assistance or have a problem Mrs. Randolph is the lady to see. Always efficient and there when you need her, she is the lady in the know.

... time, we have so little of it to enjoy. Determined to finish the least started, Mike knew nothing more than to live and live life to its fullest. Consideration and warm heart were tightly woven into his personality. A part of our Freshman is gone but not forgotten. Remember not how Michael died, but how he lived ...

MR. HEATH HIGH SCHOOL

Doug Vance

Winding paths of unfinished morrows, Here to replace those that yesterday borrows, struggling within the boundaries of our dreams, then sorting out dreams from those of real means, discovering nothing of a beginning or an end, for time recognizes nothing, yesterday to eternity it blends, your life is slipping by through those shadow's cast, these have become times your life cannot outlast.

standing alone upon my shores of reality, the waves discovering the world paused to greet me, laughing with excitement, their curiosity, conquering the world,
rushing through its' depth back to see,
leaving part with me, folding the pages of my life, pressing,
for the unspoken words, I had to tell them of my secret, they left me then to weep.

Do you remember when . . .

it's all within the wearing picture with its creased and crumbled edges, a slice of time, to preserve forever while memories are all that's left to realize that the best years have come and gone, just because our roads crossed once doesn't mean they'll cross forever we've become faces in the crowd but still individuals, and what was our one time destiny has become a greater dream than life, folding the pages of our lives, though the pages can tear or forever wear they are still momentary etchings jiggled in too fast, preserve your memories they're all that's left to you, but remember, for every end
there's a beginning

YOUNGBLOOD, Charles 161, 112, 113

David,

You are very nice. I wonder why you stay in the practice rooms all the time (just kidding) I hope you don't eat as much at home as much as you did at McDonald's. We have really had alot of fun. Don't forget you owe $2.10 for those test tubes.

Love
Melissa Alexander

P.S. Wash your hair!

David, So a real cool and funky guy and a pretty good rataplche player. Good Luck and always remember God and I both Love you
Julie Huff

David
So a good kid who'd like playing in the band. Big dummy.
~~Scott~~ Wells '77 yea.
